Prize Stories! Prize Stories!

THE TRIBUNE'S FOUR GREAT STORIES

Chicago Life.

Publication will begin in

THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE

OF DEC. 30.

When the first installment will appear of

"By a Hair's Breadth,"

BY

EDITH SESSIONS TUPPER.

"By a Hair's Breadth" is a romantic story, tersely and humorously told, and of increasing interest from beginning to end.

The scene is laid in Chicago, the characters are Chicagoans, and the localities described are familiar to readers of "The Tribune."

LOOK OUT FOR

THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE

OF DEC. 30

And the Story that won the First Prize,

"By a Hair's Breadth,"

BY

EDITH SESSIONS TUPPER.

No field is so rich in material for fiction as Chicago—the city which stands today as the greatest monument to human labor in the Western World.

Its mysteries are as dark as those of London and Paris.

Its catastrophes have appalled the world.

In the favor of its achievements much of its picturesqueness and many of its striking contrasts are lost sight of.

To encourage home talent to embody the spirit of Chicago in fresh and realistic fiction "The Tribune" has offered prizes which have excited wide competition. The results, in the way of Four Stirring Tales, are laid before "The Tribune's" readers. To Edith Sessions Tupper was awarded

The First Prize

For her tale, entitled

"By a Hair's Breadth,"

Ten Thousand Dollars Reward

is hereby offered in good faith, and will be promptly paid by Goodwin & Co., for proof of the charge that pernicious compounds of any description are used in the manufacture of

Old Judge Cigarettes

they are

Absolutely Pure.

The allegations recently made by a Chicago newspaper, to the effect that the presence of Opium or other dangerous Narcotics had been revealed by a chemical analysis of these cigarettes, are at once

Baseless and Base.

The supremacy of this Brand in the markets of the world, is explained by the fact that its manufacturers have scrupulously refrained from the use of any ingredients which would rob their cigarettes of the

Perfect Purity

to which they owe their great popularity.

In any attempt to impeach this statement, Goodwin & Co. will not only willingly participate, but will do their utmost, at their own expense, to facilitate the Most Rigid Tests.

The operations of this house, whose business for years has extended to all parts of the civilized globe have been, and are, conducted on a scale never obtained by ulterior methods, or the application of any but the strictest, and most honorable business principles.

Knowing that nothing but the most

Sweeping Refutation

can be the result of any competent analysis, Goodwin & Co. challenge crucial expert examination, confidently staking on the issue their reputation and Ten thousand dollars.

We shall publish, in a few days, the reports of some of the most eminent analytical chemists of Chicago, who are at work making the most thorough and exhaustive tests from Old Judge Cigarettes purchased by them in open market.
